

Articulation Agreements are typically signed between Pfeiffer and community colleges or other institutions which send students to Pfeiffer to complete a degree. These agreements involve an understanding to transcript courses for transfer students. Usually, significant portions of a degree program are included, not a single course here or there. The approval process involves the following steps:

- x Anyone on campus may suggest an ar